A closer reading

A place to begin

Reading begins with a single clear line.
Follow the first letters of each word, then read the same sentence again at your own pace.

Compare the first letters in Original and Bionic mode.

Read the field note on page two

The field note

A place to return

Reading can feel different on a familiar page. Look for the word reading on both pages, then return to the line where you started.

Try Find, then use the return button to go back.

Return to the opening page